MVintage: Empowering Women

We proudly celebrated Women's Day 2024 with YMCA receptionist Louise Pace collaborating with MVintage Jewellery. Her inspiring story was shared alongside those of other women from our islands, bringing to the fore these incredible role models for all the world to see, everyday. MVintage also hosted an event honouring the day, providing many of our female service users with a much-needed morale boost.

Construction Victims: Exposé

Christian Inkum and Anthony Camilleri from YMCA Malta took part in a Malta Today exclusive delving into the shameful realities of migrant construction workers in Malta. This two-part series explores the political background which has led to the creation of this 'new slave economy'. We love bold, home-grown journalism like this.

Academy of Givers: Impact Fair

Academy of Givers is a Maltese organisation focussing on bridging philanthropists and corporate actors with national NGOs. Their annual Impact Fair saw YMCA Malta represented by Dorothy Scicluna and Julia Chetcuti educating visitors to our stall on the work we do for our community.

Thank you, Grazzi ħafna

HSBC

HSBC Malta Foundation with the support of HSBC staff championed Women's Day Empowerment with their Annual Donation Drive. Twelve schools came together to support twenty NGOs working with vulnerable women, including YMCA Malta.

Emma's Kitchen

Emma's Kitchen supported the Y during our Bingo Nights, providing us with delicious, wholesome meals and plenty of warm hospitality.

QSI International School of Malta

The dedicated team of volunteers from QSI International School of Malta supported our community services, offering us their invaluable exuberance, energy and passion.

MCAST Institute of Community Services

Young students from MCAST are provided with placement hours at the YMCA Malta where they learn hands-on people skills assisting us in the multitude of services we provide.

Rotary Club Malta

A successful CSR activity by the Rotary Club Malta was carried out at one of our shelters, with participants transforming our garden areas as part of new sustainability initiatives.

PCutajar & Co Ltd

The wonderful team at PCutajar & Co Ltd helped us transform our YEP! Żabbar Centre prior to the commencement of new spring youth initiatives.
